DAD, YOU’RE THE GREATEST

by Ruby Welsh Wilkins
CAUTION: Professionals and amateurs are hereby warned that this Work is subject to a royalty. This Work is fully protected under the copyright laws of the United States of America and all countries with which the United States has reciprocal copyright relations, whether through bilateral or multilateral treaties or otherwise, and including, but not limited to, all countries covered by the Pan-American Copyright Convention, the Universal Copyright Convention and the Berne Convention.

RIGHTS RESERVED: All rights to this Work are strictly reserved, including professional and amateur stage performance rights. Also reserved are: motion picture, recitation, lecturing, public reading, radio broadcasting, television, video or sound recording, all forms of mechanical or electronic reproduction, such as CD-ROM, CD-I, DVD, information and storage retrieval systems and photocopying, and the rights of translation into non-English languages.

PERFORMANCE RIGHTS AND ROYALTY PAYMENTS: All amateur and stock performance rights to this Work are controlled exclusively by Christian Publishers. No amateur or stock production groups or individuals may perform this play without securing license and royalty arrangements in advance from Christian Publishers. Questions concerning other rights should be addressed to Christian Publishers. Royalty fees are subject to change without notice. Professional and stock fees will be set upon application in accordance with your producing circumstances. Any licensing requests and inquiries relating to amateur and stock (professional) performance rights should be addressed to Christian Publishers.

Royalty of the required amount must be paid, whether the play is presented for charity or profit and whether or not admission is charged.

AUTHOR CREDIT: All groups or individuals receiving permission to produce this play must give the author(s) credit in any and all advertisement and publicity relating to the production of this play. The author’s billing must appear directly below the title on a separate line where no other written matter appears. The name of the author(s) must be at least 50% as large as the title of the play. No person or entity may receive larger or more prominent credit than that which is given to the author(s).

PUBLISHER CREDIT: Whenever this play is produced, all programs, advertisements, flyers or other printed material must include the following notice: Produced by special arrangement with Christian Publishers.

COPYING: Any unauthorized copying of this Work or excerpts from this Work is strictly forbidden by law. No part of this Work may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form, by any means now known or yet to be invented, including photocopying or scanning, without prior permission from Christian Publishers.
DAD, YOU’RE THE GREATEST

By Ruby Welsh Wilkins
CAST GROUPS

Beginners ................. at least four Primaries .................. at least four
Juniors ..................... nine to 16
Intermediates .............. six or 12
Young People .............. six or 12

CAST OF SPECIFIC CHARACTERS
(Does not include all participants)

Young People:
Rebekah
Rebekah’s Partner
Joseph
Joseph’s Partner
Miriam
Miriam’s Partner
Samson
Samson’s Partner
Esther
Esther’s Partner
Jonathan
Jonathan’s Partner

Juniors:
James
James’ Partner
John
John’s Partner
1st Daughter of Philip
1st Daughter’s Partner
2nd Daughter of Philip
2nd Daughter’s Partner
3rd Daughter of Philip
3rd Daughter’s Partner
4th Daughter of Philip
4th Daughter’s Partner
Andrew
Andrew’s Partner
Peter
Peter’s Partner

ADDITIONAL PEOPLE NEEDED

Director
Pianist and/or Organist
Pastor or Layperson Leader

This perusal script is for reading purposes only.
No performance or photocopy rights are conveyed.
PRODUCTION NOTES

Successful production will depend largely upon the director. After the devotional, the Pastor will be free to sit with the audience and enjoy the program, so it will be up to the director to keep things rolling.

While the script is written to accommodate 60 or more participants, it can be produced effectively with less. In the young people’s part of the riddle-skit, for instance, six can do the part of 12, with each being character and partner to the other. In the junior part, one person can answer each question, etc. In the father acrostic, six can do both verses. There are many ways to improvise, and a good director can do a lot with a little ingenuity. If a cast of 60 is desired and your church cannot provide that number, try “borrowing” from neighbor churches or present the program jointly with other churches as a community project.

As stage facilities will differ from church to church, one must work out a seating arrangement that will best accommodate the drama. One of the best would be chairs in a semicircle with a center aisle. Be sure that the area is well-lighted and that nothing, such as the pulpit, obstructs the view of the audience.

In the ideal presentation, of course, parts are memorized and spoken clearly with proper enunciation. However, cue cards can be provided. In the father acrostic, the cards can be attached to the back of the letter placards. In the riddle-skit, partners can provide each other’s cues. For instance, Rebekah’s riddle can be pinned to the shoulder of her partner and his answer pinned to her shoulder. Hymnals or song sheets will be needed for the first song by junior-age and up. Hymnals may be carried in procession or placed in chairs beforehand, or song sheets may be taped to backs of chairs. For this song, beginners and primaries may stand and sing along or remain seated.
In the riddle-skit, the young people will advance down the center aisle to the front, one couple at a time. As they advance, the other participants move one place toward center aisle and remain standing as their turns approach. Members of each couple will face each other for dialogue, then return to the vacated places on opposite sides of the stage and advance one place as the skit continues. When the skit is finished, all participants should be back at their original place.

For the junior part of the skit, James and John will advance down the aisle together, with their two partners following, and face one another at Center Front (likewise the four daughters of Philip, two by two, with their partners following, then Andrew and Peter with their partners). After each skit/section is completed, the juniors will resume original positions as per the instructions for young people.

If 12 intermediates are available for the father acrostic, have them line up in a sequence of 1 through 12, with numbers 1 and 2 carrying the F letter placard, etc. For the first verse of the acrostic, numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11 will recite. For the second verse, numbers 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12 will recite. Placards must be held straight and even so that the word FATHER is easily seen from the audience.

Costumes are optional. The only props needed are the placards, which some artistic intermediates can make with little trouble. An 8" x 11" piece of white cardboard can be stapled to a fly swatter or some such support. The bold block letters can be cut from black construction paper and glued to the cardboard.

Thorough rehearsal of marching and seating is a must. You may work out your own method or use the suggested procedures, but by all means eliminate as much awkward movement as possible. During the processional, the participants march in single file from both sides of the building (side aisles) to their predetermined places on stage, youngest to the front, oldest to the back. The director and pastor/leader will be seated, prior to the procession, near the pianist and/or organist, who will remain seated throughout the drama.
(PIANIST plays processional, "God of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand." Participants march in and take their seats.)

DIRECTOR: Welcome, everyone! The youth of our church are here to bring you a Father’s Day program, entitled Dad, You’re the Greatest. Before they begin, (PASTOR’S name) will share some devotional thoughts.

PASTOR/LEADER: Thank you! We are happy to see you in attendance for our church’s Father’s Day program. We want to thank our children of all ages, our pianist (and/or organist) and our director for making this program possible. It is good to set aside a time such as this to honor our fathers; to set aside a time for dad. In the book of Proverbs, we find a portion of scripture that seems especially appropriate for reading on this occasion. (Reads Proverbs 4.)

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.
2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.
3 For I was my father’s son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.
5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.
6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.
7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.
8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee:
she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.
9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.
10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;
and the years of thy life shall be many.
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;
I have led thee in right paths.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go:
keep her; for she is thy life.
14 Enter not into the path of the wicked,
and go not in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it,
and pass away.
16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
and drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
19 The way of the wicked is as darkness:
they know not at what they stumble.
20 My son, attend to my words;
incline thine ear unto my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes;
keep them in the midst of thine heart.
22 For they are life unto those that find them,
and health to all their flesh.
23 Keep thy heart with all diligence;
for out of it are the issues of life.
24 Put away from thee a froward mouth,
and perverse lips put far from thee.
25 Let thine eyes look right on,
and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.
26 Ponder the path of thy feet,
and let all thy ways be established.
27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left:
remove thy foot from evil.

PASTOR/LEADER: Now, let us pray. (Offers prayer, then sits with audience. PIANIST plays introductory prelude to “Faith of Our Fathers.” Participants will stand.)

DIRECTOR: Our group will now sing for us that favorite Father’s Day hymn, “Faith of Our Fathers.” (Available in most hymnals. After hymn, participants will be seated.) Now, our beginners and primaries with a special word of welcome. (Beginners stand, advance one step and curtsy.)

BEGINNERS: (In unison or one line each in sequence)
We are so very, very, glad
You’ve come to share this time for Dad,
And we just hope, when it is through,
That we have made you happy, too!
(Beginners sit, primaries stand.)

PRIMARIES:
Fathers, will you all please stand
For just a moment now, because
We’re giving you a hearty hand
Of well-deserved applause!
(Participants all stand. Fathers stand for ovation.
Audience will join participants in applause, then everyone will be seated.)

DIRECTOR: Our beginners, primaries and juniors will now bring us a special Father’s Day song. The name of their song is “I’m Positive.” (PIANIST plays introductory chords as these groups stand. See page 15 for the music to this song. The groups sing:)

I’m positive that the Father above

Made fathers down here for children to love!

I know my Daddy is good as can be

And I am positive that he loves me!

Daddy loves me!

Daddy loves me!

Yes, I am positive Daddy loves me!

Daddy loves me!

Daddy loves me!

I love my Daddy, too!

DIRECTOR: (Beginners, primaries and juniors will be seated.) Our intermediates now present a father acrostic. (Intermediates advance, bearing placards, and line up down front.)

1ST INTERMEDIATE: One of the first words we associate with father is faith. We who are privileged to have Christian fathers are indeed blessed. When we see our dad’s faith in God shining through bad circumstances and good circumstances, it gives us a feeling of assurance that he is really “anchored on the Rock.”

So F stands for Faith.

3RD INTERMEDIATE: We are always reminded that our father lives by faith when we see and hear him reading God’s word. It is his allegiance to this revelation of God that makes us more aware of what the psalmist meant when he said that the entrance of God’s word gives light. This A represents Allegiance.

5TH INTERMEDIATE: We believe that it is this deep-seated reverence for the word of God that makes our dad hold on to God’s promises in times of trial. In so doing, he can overcome all odds, for he knows that it is Christ who strengthens him. This $T$, then, is for Trial.

7TH INTERMEDIATE: We thank God every day for our father’s loving heart! Even when he is not beside us, we can feel his strong arms encircling his family. It’s wonderful to feel loved like that! So this $H$ is for that gracious Heart.

9TH INTERMEDIATE: Our fathers so often go out of their way to do things for us! They make sacrificial efforts to ensure our safety and well-being, and more often than not, we are either unaware of these special efforts or just take them for granted. So these Efforts are what this $E$ represents.

11TH INTERMEDIATE: This $R$ stands for Reward. We may not always thank our dads for their efforts on our behalf, but we know that if Christians are rewarded according to their works, then heaven’s best must be in store for our dads.

2ND INTERMEDIATE: Sometimes, it must seem to our fathers that children were born to be bad. Halos just don’t seem to fit our stubborn little heads. But Dad mixes love with his discipline and never fails to forgive us. In addition to faith, this $F$ stands for Forgiveness.

4TH INTERMEDIATE: A most mysterious thing about fathers is that they always seem to have an answer for everything. No matter what the question, they can pluck an answer out of thin air, and it makes sense. No question is so unimportant that it doesn’t deserve an answer. So, in addition to allegiance, this $A$ represents Answer.

6TH INTERMEDIATE: We have already seen that the $T$ represents trial, but it also means something else. One of the best things about fathers is that they are really terrific! They are fun! Fun to play with, fun to live with. Fathers don't make fun at you; they make fun with you! So surely this T must mean Terrific.

8TH INTERMEDIATE: Fathers are always helping us.
They know how to make things, fix things, work things, paint things, plant things, take care of things.
It's easy to learn from them, for their helping hands are good teachers. H is for heart, of course, but it also means Helping Hands.

10TH INTERMEDIATE: Fathers have an uncanny way of picking you up when you're down. Even when your morale has hit rock-bottom and you're singing real minor-key blues, there's something in Dad's little grin, his understanding look and his cheering word that makes you want to get up and get going again. This E means effort, all right, but it also means Encouragement.

12TH INTERMEDIATE: We have seen that the R represents reward. But there is another word that comes to mind, and that word is reliance. Have you ever felt that there just wasn't anyone you could count on? That just about everyone had lost credibility in your book? Well, fathers are folks that you can trust. You can rely on fathers to be true to their word. So, in addition to reward, this R stands for Reliance. Now all this is really something to sing about!

(PIANIST plays introduction: "Faith of Our Fathers."
Intermediates sing the following to tune of "Faith of Our Fathers.")

F for his Faith in our wonderful Lord;
A for Allegiance to His word;
T for each Trial that he overcomes;
H for the Heart encircling our homes;
E for the Efforts made in love;
R for Reward he's worthy of!

F for Forgiving us when we are bad;
A for the Answers he's always had:
T for Terrific, for he's surely this;
H for the Helping Hands that are his;
E for Encouragement often heard;
R for Reliance on his word.

(Intermediates return to places and take their seats.)

DIRECTOR: Our juniors will now introduce the next presentation. (Juniors will stand to recite, in unison or line sequence, the riddle-skit introduction:)

We'd make some country music,
But we have no bows and fiddles,
So we are substituting
A skit of Bible riddles.
If you would like to help us
Play this little game,
Then listen close as we present
"What Was My Father's Name?"

(Juniors will be seated. REBEKAH and REBEKAH'S PARTNER advance to Front Center for the riddle-skit.)

REBEKAH:

I am Rebekah. My husband was Isaac.
We became the parents of twins.
I helped Jacob pretend to be Esau
By using some animal skins.
The land of Mesopotamia
Is where my youth was spent,
But when I married Isaac,
I lived in Sarah's tent.
I left my father's homeland
With fanfare and acclaim.
My grandfather's name was Nahor —
What was my father's name?
REBEKAH'S PARTNER:

Rebekah, the things that happened to you
Didn't just happen by chance
And the story of how Isaac got you
Is like fairy-tale romance.
How you and Jacob deceived him
Without him ever guessing
Amazes me, but Jacob got
The birthright and the blessing!
Now the question that you ask of me
Has an answer easy to tell:
Your mother's name was Milcah
And your father's was Bethuel.

(JOSEPH and JOSEPH'S PARTNER advance.)

JOSEPH:

I am Joseph. In my youth
I did a lot of dreaming,
But I had some jealous brothers
Who did a lot of scheming.
So I wound up in Egypt
And my father thought me dead,
But during that awful famine
I supplied them all with bread.
I quite perplexed my brothers
With a clever little game,
But when they knew me, they rejoiced.
Now, what was my father's name?

JOSEPH'S PARTNER:

Joseph, you were remarkable!
I often read your story,
Of your coat of many colors
And your reign in Egypt's glory.
I read of your mother Rachel
And your brother Benjamin,
Of the time you spent in prison
For an uncommitted sin.
Your father's name was Jacob
And he was a famous man.
He was a noble patriarch
And headed quite a clan.
(MIRIAM and MIRIAM'S PARTNER advance.)

MIRIAM:
My name is Miriam. I had
Two very famous brothers.
I also had, in Jochebed,
One of the best of mothers!
I waded in the river Nile
And talked with Pharaoh's daughter.
I walked across the Red Sea
And didn't touch the water!
I was called a prophetess
And earned a bit of fame —
Can you tell me from these clues
What was my father's name?

MIRIAM'S PARTNER:
Yes, Miriam! Most certainly
I know what your father's name was.
I also know as certainly
Just what his claim to fame was.
He had three famous children
One, of course, was you;
And any Bible student
Can name the other two.
Miriam, Moses, Aaron,
In the Bible Hall of Fame,
Were children of a Levite,
And Amram was his name.
(SAMSON and SAMSON'S PARTNER advance.)

SAMSON:
My name is Samson. From my birth
I was destined to be a Nazarite,
But I spent much time in showing
The Philistines how to fight.
I was a living terror
Whenever my hair was long,
But Delilah was a crafty girl
And she sure did me wrong!
But after all, I realized
I had only myself to blame.
My parents were of the tribe of Dan.
Can you tell me my father's name?

SAMSON'S PARTNER:
Samson, you judged Israel —
God's answer to their pleas.
With a bone and flaming foxtails,
You vexed their enemies.
So don't judge yourself too harshly,
For it all just plainly shows
It isn't strength that makes the man
And it isn't what he knows.
There's a moral to your story
And it must have been God's plan.
Your father's name was Manoah
And he was a righteous man.

(ESTHER and ESTHER'S PARTNER advance.)

ESTHER:
My name is Esther. When a queen,
I went unbidden to my king,
For Mordecai had brought the news
Of Haman's cruel scheme.
So we blocked his plan to kill the Jews
And we also saw him die
Hanging on the gallows built
For my cousin Mordecai!
Though I surely came to the kingdom
For a most noble cause
My father's name is not well-known
Can you tell me what it was?

ESTHER'S PARTNER:
Esther, it seems that history
Just somehow didn't bother
To tell us very much about
Your mother and your father.
But we know they died when you were young,
And I also know quite well
That your father was a Benjamite,
And his name was Abihail.
But we all know that Mordecai
Was near and dear to your heart
And, though he wasn't your father,
He surely played the part!

(JONATHAN and JONATHAN'S PARTNER advance.)

JONATHAN:
I am Jonathan, David's friend.
I loved him like a brother.
My father was Israel's first king
And Ahinoam was my mother.
My father was a son of Kish
And a taller man than most.
A valiant warrior, Abner,
Was captain of his host.
I was much grieved for David
For my father had done him shame.
Still, I did love my father.
Tell me now, what was his name?

JONATHAN'S PARTNER:
Jonathan, your type of loyalty
Has seldom been seen since!
What a gracious ally David had
In such a manly prince!